New Subdivision East of Lake Villa to Have 1,800 Lots for Homes

Engle Brothers Buy Siebel Farm; Create New Problem for Schools

The Lindenhurst farm of 500 acres east of Lake Villa recently was purchased by N. H. Engle and Sons, Inc., Chicago, with offices in Venetian Village, and will be subdivided in 1,800 lots.

Owner of the property was Mrs. E. A. Siebel who has disposed of her live stock and farming equipment and will reside in Glencoe where she recently bought a $65,000 residence.

Sale price of her farm was said to have been near $500,000. It has a frontage of 1 1/2 miles on Grand ave. and a depth of one mile reaching nearly to Hastings lake.

The Engles plan to sell the residence on the south side of Grand ave. on Sand lake, and will use the farm buildings for shops and storage in building new homes at the rate of 150 a year.

The new addition eventually will provide another problem of overcrowding in the Lake Villa Grade school which now is in the process of constructing the last addition that can be built on the present site.

Also affected will be Antioch Township High school which will share with Grayslake High School the students coming from the new addition. The area will be enough to provide a population of 7,000 when built up.

The Engle company already has built 1,000 houses in Venetian Village, Millmore, and Grayslake.

Education Tax Increase Voted Down 82 - 80 by Grass Lake District

Effort to Relieve School's Financial Distress is a Failure

For the second time the proposal of the Grass Lake board of education for an increase in the educational tax fund was turned down Saturday.

The vote was 80 for and 82 against with three ballots spoiled. The two-vote victory for the opponents for the increase was a big disappointment to the board which had hoped that the financial distress of Dist. 36 would be relieved this time.

An increase was asked from 41 cents on the $100 valuation to 71 cents, which is comparable to many other districts.

The district has borrowed up to the limit in tax anticipation warrants.

The present tax rate is the lowest in Lake county.

Just what the next move of the board will be to keep the school operating has not been announced.

For ten years Maxwell was "Printing Man" (Continued on page 7)

Bell Telephone to Add 916 Miles of Wire to Village's Growing Lines

Antioch System's Capacity Increased by 150 Telephones

Recent additions to the telephone equipment in the central office at 117 E. Church St., have increased the Antioch telephone system's capacity by 150 telephones, according to J. M. Littler, Illinois Bell's manager for this area.

At the same time, Littler announced that approval had been given for a multi-thousand dollar project involving addition of 916 miles of wire in cable in the west and southwest portions of Antioch. Action was taken at the April meeting of Illinois Bell's Board of Directors.

The cable work will result in the adding of 20,710 feet of aerial and buried cable on both sides of Cemetery road, to meet the growing needs of Antioch. Part of the aerial cable now in use will be replaced.

Littler pointed out that the changing character of Antioch from that of a summer resort area to a year round home for many residents was responsible for the most recent equipment addition and cable work now planned. The equipment addition was the second here in the last two years. In 1951 equipment was installed which permitted expansion of the telephone system by 140 telephones.

Antioch's telephones have more than doubled in number since the end of 1945, where there were only 1,410 in use here. The number of calls placed on an average business day in 1952 was almost 300 more than was placed on a similar day in 1951. Last year a grand total of 1,950,890 calls were placed by Antioch residents.

Only a few Antioch residents are now waiting for telephone service according to Littler. Service for these residents is expected to be available later this year when necessary cable facilities have been installed.

The project approved last month will not begin until later this year.

Big Crowd Expected at Firemen, Rescue Squad Dance Saturday Night

The public will have a chance to see the fine new Four-Aces club dance floor on Rte. 173 at Channel lake for the first time Saturday evening at the annual dance of the Fire department and Antioch Rescue squad.

No admission will be charged and the dancing will be free.

The two organizations will make their money on the refreshments that are sold.

The new dance hall, a worthy successor to the one that burned, is owned by Ted Smith. It has a 90-foot U bar. Around the sides of the dance floor are tables at which food and drink can be served.

A large attendance is expected because of the opportunity to see the place and to aid the two organizations.

V. F. W. Unit Warned Congressional Economy May Hit Vet Hospitals

Mrs. Lois Peterson, president of the Antioch Ladies Auxiliary unit, Veterans of Foreign Wars, received a Western Union message from Mrs. Doris Holm, national president, warning the local unit of an economy move in congress that would slice off appropriations for veterans hospitals.

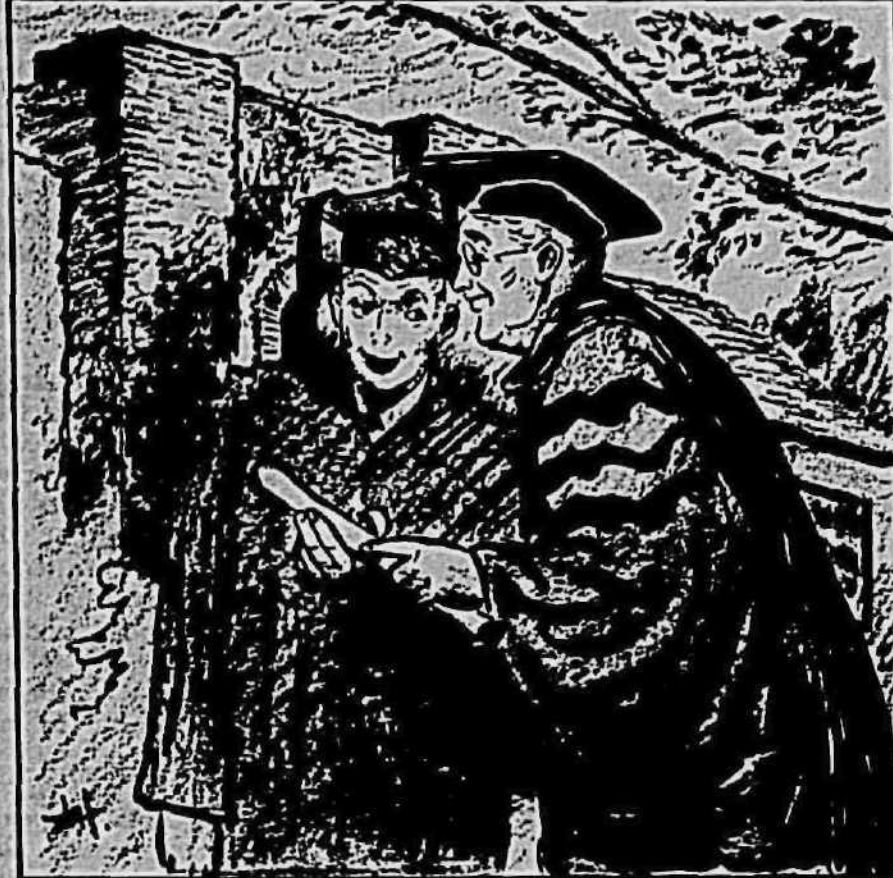

"It will force the closing of additional thousands of hospital beds and seriously aggravate a situation which even today finds great hosts of veterans suffering from tuberculosis, mental disturbances, and chronic diseases, yet unable to secure treatment because of lack of beds," the message said.

Mrs. Peterson was asked to call a meeting of the auxiliary within 24 hours so that a resolution might be passed condemning such a move, and that a copy of the resolution be sent to congressmen.

The new budget bill will come up for consideration May 25.

Earl Horton underwent surgery at Hines hospital at Maywood last Thursday. His condition is very good and he expects to return home soon.

District to Fine All Who Start Grass Fires Without Permission

Fire Call Expense for Quarter Greatest in History of District

An ordinance making punishable by fine the starting of a grass fire without a permit from the fire chief of Antioch will be passed Tuesday evening by officials of the Antioch fire district.

The decision was made, Edward C. Jacobs, attorney for the district said, after appeals for care and safety went unheeded and the expense for grass fire calls to the Antioch fire department exceeded any quarter in the history of the district.

"We didn't anticipate such a heavy expense, didn't make appropriate," and don't know where the money is coming from to meet it," said Jacobs.

The Antioch fire district includes Antioch township outside the village of Antioch. It has an arrangement with the Antioch fire department for its protection on call. Firemen are paid so much an hour per call.

The comparatively mild winter and dry weather made grass fires all the more hazardous during the past three months.

Chuck Davis won first in the broad jump with a distance of 18 ft. 7 1/2 inches.

Ben Floyd, because of injury was not used in the pole vault which he could have won.

In the freshman and sophomore separate relays Antioch won thirds. Coach Paul Kessenich said he was proud of his freshman team in view of the fact that when two members failed to show up, a pole vaulter and shot putter took their places and helped land the third place. Antioch got 18 ribbons and 32 1/2 points.

Palatine won the meet with Wauconda second. Grayslake was fourth; Bensenville, fifth; Grant, sixth, and Elia, seventh.

Charles Bock will be the only Antioch entry Tuesday in the county track meet at Waukegan. Coach Kessenich prefers to save his track men for the all-conference varsity meet the following day.

Fixed Costs Can't Be Sidetracked

Shortly after the termination of price controls, the head of an organization of food processors said that the effect on food costs to the housewife would be "nil." He added, "There will be certain adjustments, because of the mismanagement of the office of price stabilization . . . What the housewife gains on meat she'll lose on coffee—and there are similar instances all along the line."

He then went on to explain why it is expected that there will be little or no overall change in prices. Since 1939, 85 per cent of the increase that has taken place in the retail price of food is due to higher taxes and other unavoidable costs.

Furthermore, he said, there has been no per capita increase in labor productivity since 1946, and since wage increases have not been offset by greater productivity they have been paid for in other ways—including higher prices to the consumer, a lower share of the consumer dollar to farmers, and lower profits to the enterprises involved.

Those who still blame the people who are engaged in producing and selling commodities for high prices should read that over. Neither producers nor retailers can do much about the high fixed costs that characterize the operation of business today.

Far Cry from "Smoke Signals"

Mechanical brains are your guardian angels when you travel on the nation's railroads.

"Today," states Newsweek magazine, "more than 5,000 locomotives are equipped with 'cab signaling.' An engineer can tell from a glance at the instrument panel the track condition ahead. Visibility may be zero, wayside signals invisible, yet if another train is on the track or a switch is open, the engineer knows it instantly. Should he fail to heed the warning, another modern gimmick—automatic train control—takes over and applies the brakes."

This is a far cry from the early days when the old iron horse ran on "smoke signals." In those times a cracked rail was a deadly hazard. Today a car with "X-Ray Eyes" that can see through steel, travels the rails and finds defects that are physically impossible for the naked eye to detect. This car locates and marks these hidden flaws to guide maintenance crews.

The railroads have found it pays to take these precautions which not only provide greater safety for travelers, but save time and energy in operation. Accident prevention on American railroads is not left to chance. This accounts for the all-time passenger safety record established in 1952 for which the railroads have been given much well-deserved praise.

A World of Difference

More than 700,000 men are employed in England's national coal mines. In 1952, they produced 230,000,000 tons of coal.

By contrast, the American mines employ 350,000 miners—and in the same year they produced 485,000,000 tons.

What are the reasons for this tremendous difference in productivity?

There are many reasons, of course—and one of the biggest is that under socialism incentive is lost, everything is enmeshed in red-tape, bureaucrats who may know little or nothing about the enterprises under their control give the orders and write the rulebooks, and competition, as we understand the word, doesn't exist. Under the American free enterprise system, on the other hand, competition both encourages and forces producers to spend endless money, thought and effort to find better, faster and more economical producing methods. The inefficient operator can't survive—the business goes to his competitors.

Moreover, the American coal industry's great production record hasn't been made at the expense of labor. The American miner receives wages and other benefits that would seem fantastic to the miners in England or any other coal-producing nation abroad.

How to Kill the Goose

Excessive taxation actually can reduce government revenues—by preventing business expansion which would create new sources of taxation.

The following quotation from the report of the Senate Small Business committee tells the story: "Many witnesses stated that they were unable or unwilling to take the necessary business risks to expand their business when over 80 per cent of their increased earnings were earmarked for the Director of Internal Revenue."

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

This year—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. That couldn't be true unless Chevrolet trucks offered more of what you want.

Already, 1953's official sales figures tell a remarkable story of clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. But, this is not surprising, for truck users everywhere are discovering how far ahead of all other Chevrolet trucks really are.

They are discovering things like the tremendous new power in advanced Loadmaster engines in heavy-duty models . . . the remarkable gasoline economy . . . the extra ruggedness and strength of heavier, more rigid frame construction. And, in addition to all these advantages, the Chevrolet line lists for less than any other trucks of comparable size and capacity. So, before you buy any truck, stop in and see us.

SHORT STORY

Enoch
Was Smart

By Peter Willis

"I'll tell you what," Enoch said. "Tomorrow you put on a pair of slacks and pack a lunch. I'll get a steak and pick you up in the jolopy around 8 o'clock and we'll climb Sugar mountain. There's nothing better than a nice juicy steak broiled over an open fire."

It was perfect weather for a picnic. Cool and crisp and bright.

In the lee of some rocks on the mountain top Enoch gathered stones, built a fire and broiled the steak over hot coals. They spent the afternoon exploring. Jama couldn't remember when she'd had such an exciting time. At sunset, halfway down the mountain, they paused to watch the colors. Enoch's arm slipped about her waist. The kiss was sweet and tender.

It was two evenings later that Tony Penn asked Jama to attend the country club ball with him.

The night of the dance there was a fine drizzle. Tony phoned at the last minute that he had to run in town on a matter of business and would she mind if he sent his car and met her at the club.

She had to wait 15 minutes for him, but she didn't mind that. There were too many interesting people to watch. When Tony got there they went into the cocktail lounge and had a couple of drinks. They were sitting at a remote table and Tony tried to kiss her. Jama felt conspicuous and told him to behave himself. Tony didn't like that. He sulked all the rest of the evening.

When Jama came down to breakfast the next morning her mother acted as though she had something on her mind. After awhile she said: "Jama, when are you going to think about getting married?"

"Married? Oh, mother!"

"You're 24. If you wait much longer you won't have a choice. You'll have to take what's offered."

Her mother was thinking of Tony. Tony was the best catch in town.

"No one's asked me yet."

"Now, Jama, you know very well how silly that is. Tony Penn's in love with you. Every one knows that. He'd ask you if you gave him half a chance."

Impulsively Jama asked: "I wonder if Enoch Starr would ask me."

"Enoch Starr!" her mother snorted. "That dreamer. Enoch Starr will never get anywhere."

Jama had lied when she told her mother no one had asked her to marry. Both Tony and Enoch had proposed and she had put them off. Enoch had not mentioned the matter since. Tony never saw her without trying to force an answer.

The next day was Sunday and she went riding with Enoch.

Jama swallowed hard and began.

"I promised you I'd let you know—how I felt when I made my decision. I—I'm going to marry Tony."

He was silent a moment. She could see the hurt in his eyes.

"Oh, Enoch, I'm so sorry! Please try and understand. A girl has to be practical when she thinks of marriage. A smart girl would marry a practical man."

"So you don't think I'm practical?"

"Oh, Enoch, darling, you're something else, you're sweet!"

He smiled. "Darling, I'm the most practical man in the world. But I believe in making an occasion of life, in avoiding unpleasantness."

"Whatever can you mean?"

"I suppose you think it just happened that the sun shone all day when we took our picnic? Why, shucks, honey, I spent an hour checking the weather report. I spent another hour picking out the steak. I went up the mountain the day before and got those rocks together so you wouldn't have to wait for your lunch. I wanted to kiss you all day long, but I waited till sunset, for a perfect setting. I thought a kiss then would do the most good."

Enoch had the ring in his pocket. He had carried it there for months. It was perfect, fit precisely. Jama was delirious with happiness. Enoch was a little worried. It was a good idea all right—this making an occasion of life business. You always thought of good ideas when you were desperate. Perhaps, he thought, he'd better try putting it into practice and see how it worked.

COMMUNIST IDEA

Hungary Puts Tax
On All People Who Don't Have Children

BUDAPEST — The Communist government of Hungary has come up with a new tax idea. Not so much to raise money, however, as to increase the population.

It is a special 4 per cent tax on total income of all persons who do not have children.

For a long time the government has subsidized couples with children under a program called "Protection of Mothers and Children." It is proving so expensive, however, that the state has decided it is reasonable that those without children, the bachelors and the spinsters, should contribute to the fund.

The tax must be paid by bachelors between 20 and 50 and spinsters between 20 and 45, as well as by childless couples. Members of the Army, State Security Office, disabled veterans, and university students between 20 and 24 are exempt.

The new program also decrees that newborn babies are to be given diapers and clothing in the value of $33 by the government. Family allowances for families with more than three children are increased. The allowances are stopped for those with but one child.

The new program is designed to encourage Hungarians to have larger families, a Hungarian government spokesman reported.

Crow Hater Kills
50,000 With Bombs

GREENVILLE, Texas — With one mighty blast, Joe Browder, who says he hates crows more than anything, killed 50,000 of them recently in the Brazos River bottoms. The blast was created with dynamite fashioned into bombs.

Mr. Browder, who lives in Greenville, fashioned 300 bombs from 150 pounds of dynamite and shards from a metal foundry. He set off the bombs and the crows died or fell wounded on the ground. Then he and his confederates charged into them with clubs and killed the wounded.

The people of the community of Asa, Texas, who help in the extermination were outnumbered at least 1,000 to 1 by crows.

February is the beginning of the mating season for crows. Mr. Browder, Game Warden Hubert Brooks, H. V. Stein of Dallas, Texas, and Bill Lawrence of Lake Texoma took advantage of that fact. They tied the bombs in the trees in the river bottoms during the day.

When the crows congregated in the trees that night, Mr. Browder set off the bombs simultaneously with eight storage batteries.

It was his 23 crow-bombing mission.

Just from looking at the number of crows on the ground on the seven acres, we figure there must have been at least 50,000 killed, Game Warden Brooks estimated.

Horses sometimes ride in planes, trains, or trucks; now it is possible for a horse to take his own bathtub along when he travels. The new invention is a bathing stall. The horse walks into it, a watertight door is closed behind him and motor-powered nozzles shower his legs. The water rises until he floats. Then it swirls around him. There's nothing like a shower and your own private tub after a hot sweaty race, the horse seems to say.

New Chemical Adds to Life of Home Heating Fuel Oil Containers

A new chemical formulation that will add to the life expectancy of home heating oil tanks will soon be provided as an added service to customers of the Lahti Oil company, W. V. Lahti, owner, announced today. The chemical, called Sonitor, works by retarding corrosion which causes tank leakage and failure. It was developed by Shell research scientists and is being supplied by Shell to the Lahti Oil Co.

Lahti said that research preceding the announcement of Sonitor showed that corrosion is not related to the heating oil itself but is caused by small quantities of water that normally accumulate in the tank. "Any home owner who has uncapped his oil tank probably has noticed the sweating inside the fill pipe. Moisture condenses inside every tank from the humid air which is breathed in through the vent pipe."

Since water is heavier than the oil, it goes to the bottom of the tank where it collects in small droplets. In the corrosion process a tiny electric current is set up through the water, eating away the steel atom by atom and converting it to rust. This can occur with only a few drops of water present. "Laboratory tests measuring the effect of the new chemical on corrosion rates show it will lead to remarkable reduction in tank damage," Lahti said. "It is not uncommon for new tanks to fail within a year or two after being installed, but tests indicate that application of the new product about once every three years should practically eliminate these early failures and increase the average life span many fold."

The new product, an outgrowth of research begun in 1938 by Shell Development company, is a crystalline substance packaged in small cans. The contents of a can is poured directly into the fuel oil tank. Sonitor settles to the bottom of the tank and mixes with the moisture. Its action is twofold: it stops the electric current that attacks the metal, and it reacts with the metal to form a protective coating on the metal surface. Since Sonitor is not soluble in oil, it cannot be dissolved by the fuel and carried away through the outlet pipe.

See Pictures of Norway
Antioch firemen were treated to color movies of Norway by Villy Christianson, a photographer, at the regular meeting Tuesday evening. Christianson lives with his cousin, Chris Christianson at the Chain O' Lakes Country Club. The pictures were of the King and Queen of Norway in their trip to London.

H. Philip Maxwell...

Maxwell was born in Greencastle, Ind., on August 1, 1901, the son of Harry L. Maxwell, a Methodist gospel singer, and Grace Beck Maxwell, a high school English instructor. He attended public schools in Greencastle, and DePauw university.

After his graduation in 1924, he worked for the Greencastle Banner and Herald, the Brazil (Ind.) Daily Times, the Terre Haute (Ind.) Star, the Indianapolis News, the Spencer (Ind.) Evening World, and the Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal before he joined the editorial staff of the Chicago Tribune in 1929.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell have collaborated in the composition of several songs, she writing the music, he the lyrics. Among their compositions are "Wheels-a-Rolling," the theme of the Chicago Railroad Fair pageant; "Toast to Music," a mixed choral number; "All My Love, Dear," a ballad; "Captain Carlsen," a tribute to the famed skipper of the Flying Enterprise; and "Let's Sing to Victory," which has been featured on the Chicago Theatre of the Air, the Air Force hour, and the Band of America radio show. Their latest song, "Campus Days," is dedicated to DePauw university where they met. In recognition of his accomplishments in the field of music, Maxwell in 1951 received an honorary degree of Doctor of Music from the Sherwood Music school. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi and Sigma Delta Chi fraternities. He belongs to the Presbyterian church, the Masonic order, and is honorary member of several Chicago musical and fraternal organizations.

ATOM'S APPLE

Big Concrete Bowl
Is Foundation
For Atomic Engine

WEST MILTON, N. Y.—Newspaper readers were surprised recently by pictures of a large concrete bowl under construction here. From a distance it looked as though it might be an amphitheater or a football stadium.

In real use, however, it is a "saucer" 42 feet deep and 178 feet in diameter, the foundation for a 225-foot steel sphere. The sphere itself is to house a section of the hull of an atomic submarine.

Wherever work in atomic energy is in progress, the first consideration is always for the safety of personnel and of people living in surrounding areas. The steel sphere will provide an added precaution. In the remote event of simultaneous failure of controls in the reactor itself, the resulting release of radioactive material would be safely contained in the sphere.

When the structure was first pictured, an enterprising editor coined the phrase "Atom's Apple" as a name for the sphere. The name has caught on with the public, although scientists have done their best to point out that it is really called a Hortonsphere.

Though similar spheres are widely used in the chemical and petroleum industries, the one at West Milton will be the largest ever constructed.

Gold Hoarding
Is World Problem

WASHINGTON—One of the great problems of today is hoarding of gold outside the United States. In the U.S. it is illegal to hoard gold.

It has been estimated that outside the United States private gold hoards amount to $11 billion. This figure excludes all the yellow metal estimated to have gone into industrial uses over the years.

The paradox is that there is such a vast store of idle and unproductive money in a world plagued by a shortage of dollars for trade purposes and by a great need of investment capital for modernization of production and for helping underdeveloped areas to realize their potentialities.

An analysis of the gold hoarding trend abroad since the end of World War II shows that the greatest amount occurred in 1951, reflecting the event in Korea and their inflationary aftermath. In that year an estimated 59 per cent of the known world gold production disappeared into private hoards while only 15 per cent was added to official gold reserves.

In the previous five years, from 48 to 58 per cent of total annual gold production had been added to official gold reserves yearly.

Doctor Uses Magnet
To Cure a Cough

SCHENECTADY—Dr. Arthur Q.
Penta, noted broncho-esophagologist at Ellis Hospital, recently used one of the world's smallest magnets to remove a metal object from a patient's lung.

The doctor had a patient that originally complained of a wheezing cough, but an x-ray revealed that, of all things, a carpet tack was lodged in the narrow portion of his right lung.

The patient, a handyman around the house, carrying the tacks in his mouth had unconsciously inhaled one of them.

Removal of the tack by means of forceps proved impossible and the only alternative seemed to be lung surgery with possible respiratory complications.

Then Dr. Penta thought up the magnetic answer. He had one designed and made. It is believed to be one of the smallest ever used in bronchoscopy.

New World Record

PALM SPRINGS, Calif.—A new world speed record for planes was established recently at the Salton Sea near Palm Springs. In a speed trial a new type Sabre-jet inter-ceptor was clocked at 699.9 miles per hour over a measured course.
To the layman that is 700 miles an hour in good round figures.

The plane which set the new record was powered by a turbo-jet engine, equipped with an afterburner for increased thrust, making possible greater speed and improved rate of climb. The craft is the all-weather interceptor version of the F-86 Sabre-jet which has a 15-to-1 kill ratio over the Russian built MIG 15 in Korea.

Set Rug Trend
Queen Elizabeth of England is credited with having put the rug in its place. By the queen's order, a large rug was spread over rushes on the floor of her throne room, according to historical researchers of Johnson's wax. Bumpy as the surface must have been, it set a fashion that endured although the polished floor has now supplanted the rushes.

Little League to Begin Drill; Will Work on Field Sun.

Antioch's Little League will get under way this week when fathers and boys will meet at the ball park to mow and improve the grounds in readiness for the season. Workers are asked to meet at the field at 1 p. m. Sunday.

Officials of the league said today that a number of boys who filled out cards have not yet returned them. These boys will be placed on a team as soon as the cards are received. A new minor league has also been established for boys of 8 and 9 years of age, and practice sessions will be held at the Antioch Grade school every Friday evening.

Players Chosen Wednesday

Players for the coming year were assigned to teams Wednesday evening. Most of the boys will play on the same teams as last year with new boys filling in for the 12-year-olds who are no longer eligible.

Practice nights for the various teams have been scheduled with the regular ball field and the Grade school diamond both in use. The Cubs and Giants will use the fields on Monday evenings, with the Cubs at the ball park. The Tigers will use the park on Tuesday evenings with the Sox at the Grade school. On Thursdays the Dodgers will train at the ball park with the Yanks at the Grade school. Rosters of the teams will be released next week as well as the season schedule.

Cancer Drive Put Over the Top by Dance Wednesday

Antioch township's annual cancer drive is well over the $1000 quota, according to Mrs. Elvin Keulman, chairman. A total of $189 was realized from sale of tickets to a dance held Wednesday evening to aid the drive.

Music for the dance was furnished by the "Tune Doctors," personnel of which is made up of business and professional men of the community. All services in connection with the dance were donated, including the orchestra, and services of Mrs. Knute Lassen, who handled the refreshments and Ray Bolton, janitor at the school.

Mrs. Keulman said that she expects to have a few more contributions, and expressed herself as well pleased with the generous response of residents of the community.

Antioch High Nine To Play Woodstock In Dist. Tournament

Antioch Township High school's baseball team is scheduled to play Woodstock High today at Crystal Lake in the district tournament.

Ela-Vernon High will play here Friday afternoon.

Coach Dick Scott would like to have to cancel the game with Ela-Vernon because of a victory over Woodstock and continuation in the tournament, but since Woodstock is tied for first place in its conference, the chances aren't so strong.

The Sequoits lost to Ela-Vernon at Lake Zurich last evening by a score of 9 to 3. Through a mix-up in the schedule Grayslake also showed up there for a game, and so far as the results were concerned, Antioch might have wished that the Rams had played it.

Antioch broke into the scoring in the second inning on a walk and Bob Weber's triple. Weber himself came home on a fly ball a moment later, accounting for two of the Sequoit scores.

Ela came back with two runs in its half of the second. A sensational catch by a Bear outfielder robbed Bruce Stahmer of what was tagged for a home run in the fourth.

Score by innings:
Antioch ..... 0 2 0 0 1 0—3
Ela-Vernon ..... 0 2 0 3 0 4—9
Batteries: Stahmer and McGreal; Obenauf and Schmidt.

Sale of Poppies Helps Vets Who Make Them

Poppy Day will be observed in Antioch and throughout most of the nation on May 23, the Saturday before Memorial Day.

On that day everyone in the city will be asked to wear a memorial poppy in honor of the dead of the two World Wars and the Korean conflict. In exchange for the poppies the Auxiliary will accept contributions for its work for disabled veterans and for needy children of veterans which is largely supported by these contributions.

Mrs. Oscar Onstad is poppy chairman in charge of poppy sales Friday night, May 22, and Saturday, May 23.

The bright red Memorial poppy you are asked to wear on Poppy Day is the courageous work of disabled veterans. It is their way to honor the war dead, and, at the same time, to help the living victims of war.
